Person Ferst on Moon Aumanus—We have frequently occasion to notice the appreximation which Chicago Bt rapidly making to Eactern strice. New York feshioms are becoming purelate. Amongst other things we have noticed for worst time pair a gradual importation of mock arction derises, against which it is our duty to cention con-efficient continuer. We were not a little name who the other day in witnessing the following scenes—An anctioner, with the man of his load attachment lange and company of the following scenes—An anctioner, with the manual department of the following scenes of the second of the way through the stream of the increase of lings of the way through the save with the second of the partment. With loaks most dejected and solve of the partment of the following liberated from his neck a spien is performer. With leaks most dejected he solvenely liberated from his neck a spiker did hobing gold chain, and dew forth we've make inches and dew forth we've with misch care what appeared to be a manive gold watch, beautifully engraved, and having overy appearance of a first rate. This watch "and he to the metionser, in an ucles tone, but loud council." suctioner, in an under tone, but loud enough tone, for the people to hear him. The metionered of them, feeted not to hear, and vociferated away at the top of his voice on the qualities of some tracks along article he held in his hand; during which time where the man with the watch manifested every lage of deep distress. At length as if impatient, the latter personage exclaimed—"Auctioneer, I am manifested the personage exclaimed—"Auctioneer, I am manifested to the watch, and giving it a very knowing examination, the auctioner shock his head and male. For the personal person will not see the value of this tone. "I fear, sir, you will rot get the value of this metallics, and if I put it up, it must be world—"frait.
"Well," replied the man, "it is my entered at 1981 watch, and I should like to get a decent price "at 1981.

for it, for we have to go East and we have no money. Up went the watch, and the metion ser more found a number of hide-own ather him. evit made them—for an, eight, ten, and up to fourteen, and three quarter to deliant, when, about to knock it down, a terrible pristonded alternation arose between the two—the man probeting against his sister's watch being sold for with a sum, and imploring the ancilonage to handle as the money to pay for the commission, rather than compelled to make such a terrible sacrifica. The sustineer refused to wait a mounth, and declared that the watch should be told for whatever it would fetch. The man appended to the facility of the mone affecting manner, declared to make the mone affecting manner, declared to the mone affecting manner, declared them not to let h be sacrificed in each a man-ner. At langth a countryman bade another quarter, the only bean fair bid that had been made, and down went the watels.

Xow such watches are bought by the busher-being simply galvanized—for there are four dellars each, and as a watch, are not worth as many cents.
